ACADEMIC

Item: Women's Studies Programme

Details: The University of Western Ontario. Their pamphlet is available from the Information File in the Main Office. Their schedule of speakers from Oct. to May is posted on the Academic Bulletin Board.

Item: JOB!! Contact Dr. Gail Valaskakis, Vice-Dean, Academic Planning (2086).

Details: Mt. St. Vincent University in Halifax is seeking a Dean of Human and Professional Development. This was originally a university for women and today 85% of the students are women and 60% of the faculty and staff. See posting on Academic Bulletin Board under Jobs.

SOCIAL CONCERNS

Item: Upstream Journal and Guatemalan widows

Details: Upstream Journal (Oct. '88) published by Social Justice Committee of Montreal now available in Documentation Centre. They are sponsoring the Annual "Just" Wrappings Campaign whereby you create your own unique wrapping and contribute the money saved to the campaign. This money goes to help Guatemalan women who have been widowed as a result of the political violence in Guatemala. These women sell their weavings (available at the Social Justice Committee) to help support their families. The Social Justice Committee of Montreal is at 2338 St. Antoine St. W (near George Vanier Metro). Phone first (933-6797) as their hours are sometimes irregular.
